1. Use of the equipment must be scheduled in advance. Use the on-line scheduling system (LabArchives) to verify availability of the equipment and room population.
2. Flow Cytometry and Mass Spec – only 1 person is allowed in the work area at a time.
3. Microscopy – may have 2 persons in the room at the same time however must practice physical distancing.
4. Histology – access is limited to the CORE staff.
5. Genomics – access is limited to the CORE staff.
6. All persons must wear appropriate PPE which includes face mask, lab coat, and gloves. Safety glass must be worn as appropriate. PPE must be maintained (regular cleaning).
7. Common touch surfaces (door handles, keyboards, chairs) must be decontaminated before and after use. A space disinfectant is provided.
8. Equipment must be cleaned before and after use. The SOPs for cleaning each piece of equipment can be found adjacent to the equipment.

NOTE: Researchers engaging in unsafe behaviors inconsistent with the guidelines may be asked to suspend research until they can implement appropriate measures.